Week 2 – Term 1

Welcome back, here we are already week 2 Term 1 and only 7 weeks to go, nice and easy!! Right!

I hope you all had a great break and are all well and truly re-charged , wasn't summer great! Remember 22/12 till 8/1?

At the end of last year Jenny our accounts lady moved on to greener pastures, this left Jackie and I a little short handed but it was neat getting back in the mix of it, knowing of course it was a short term thing!

This changed our holiday plans so we had 2 long weekends and it worked. As in past years the Atkins clan headed to South Bay, Kaikoura and for a change I managed to get the wetsuit wet only “ONCE” never mind.

Our girls Holly and Sophie went out on the Dolphin Encounter and had a ball, they were even lucky enough to see Hector Dolphins which apparently a rare occurrence in that area. The viewing option of $140.00 for both of them for 3hours was we thought great value check it out next time you are in Kaikoura

As mentioned before Jenny finished up at the end of last year and we wish her well, We welcome on board Roger Wyeth, who has taken on the position of Accounts Administrator, Roger comes from a business background both in retail and owning his own business, accounting and finance. He brings a whole new dimension to the team and work place, keep an eye on our web site for a profile on him.

Every Christmas we have a really tight time frame to turn around work even though it looks like a long time at the beginning. Unlike last Christmas of which I still have nightmares over. This one went relatively smoothly, a big thank you to our suppliers, customers and truckies, yes we had issues but nothing in comparison.

Every holidays I get to go to the movies with Sophie (12years old) and this year was no different, bring on the “Alvin and the Chipmunks the Squeakquel”, a lot of fun but not as good as the first, Sophie loved it and still spurts out the one liners (she has that ability) bring on the next holidays!!

This terms special is Teacher Stations our H8 range, I will be handing this out on the rounds but please feel free to give us a call and we will bring you up to speed.

Our sports supplier has got a nice new catalogue out and should you like a copy gives us a call. 0800 367 573
